Privacy Policy

Effective Date: September 19, 2025

Version: 1.1

Stallo AI is developed and operated by 6 Hour AS (Org.nr: 932 547 511).

We are committed to protecting your privacy. This policy explains what data we collect during the current pre-launch phase and how we handle it.

---

1. What We Collect

During pre-launch, we collect minimal data through our waitlist form:

- Required: Email address – so we can notify you when Stallo launches.
- Optional:
  - Company name
  - Role
  - Company size
  - Free-text input on what you would automate first

We also collect technical information automatically sent by your browser (e.g. IP address, device type) for security and basic analytics.

> Note: Please do not include sensitive personal information in the free-text field.

We do not collect account information, chat history, uploaded files, or other user-generated content at this stage.

2. How We Use the Data

We use this data only to:

- Notify you about product launch and updates.
- Understand the types of users interested in Stallo, to prioritize product development.
- Maintain website security and performance.
- Measure basic usage trends (e.g. number of visitors).

We do not sell or share your personal data with advertisers.

3. Legal Basis

We process personal data based on:

- Consent – when you join the waitlist.

- Legitimate interest – to operate and secure our website and understand user demand.
